The Court previously conditionally certified this collective action, and directed Plaintiffs to file a revised proposed notice and consent forms to the Court for approval. The Court also ordered Defendants to provide Plaintiffs with a list of potential plaintiffs within 28 days. That deadline is March 25, 2019.

The Plaintiffs have provided the Court with revised notice and consent forms and the Court has been informed that Defendants have no further objections to the forms. The Court finds that the revised forms comply with the instructions of the Court's prior order and opinion.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that:

1. Per the notice filed by plaintiffs, Doc. 125, their motion for reconsideration, Doc. 124, is WITHDRAWN;
  2. The revised proposed notice and consent forms attached to this order are APPROVED;
  3. Plaintiffs shall prepare and mail the notice and consent forms to the individuals provided to potential plaintiffs after it has received the list of potential plaintiffs from Defendants;
  4. The relevant class period shall begin 3 years prior to the date this order is entered;
- and

5. The opt-in period shall begin on the day after Defendant's deadline to provide Plaintiffs with a list of potential plaintiffs, and run for 60 days. Thus, to opt-in, potential plaintiffs must mail their consent forms to the Clerk of the Court at the address provided in the notice, postmarked no later than 60 days after March 26, 2019, which is May 25, 2019.

SO ORDERED, this, the 18th day of March 2019.
